

2nd Annual Chess Day Scholastic

Children * Chess * Charity

October 8th, 2011

Brookwood Village Mall * Birmingham, AL

The 2nd annual Chess Day Scholastic was held at the Brookwood Village Mall - Food Court - in support of the National Chess Day celebration in America. We had 43 eager children playing chess from five (5) counties (Jefferson, Shelby, Tuscaloosa, St. Clair, and Calhoun). The tournament entry fees ($515) and prizes (~ $400) were donated to Children's Hospital.

The Chess Day Scholastic tournament allowed us to play chess, help children achieve their best and support a charitable cause – Children's of Alabama. The children received Trophies, Medallions, Gift Cards, and Certificates for their participation and competitive chess play.

We truly appreciate the sponsors - Colonial Brookwood Village Mall, Children's Hospital, Books-A-Million, and Caesar Chess - for their generous support and time. Thanks! Let's do it again in 2012...

Join us for the 2011 Halloween Classic on October 29th at the Bham Bridge Club. Email us at: CaesarChess@yahoo.com. Follow us at: www.AlabamaChess.com.
